Book Lending Rules

Students can borrow up to three books at a time for a period of 14 days. Books can be renewed once for an additional 7 days if there are no pending requests. Late returns attract a fine of 5 rupees per day per book.

Return Deadlines

The deadline for returning borrowed books is strictly 14 days from the issue date. Renewal must be requested at least one day before the due date. Books not returned after 30 days will be considered lost and the student must pay the replacement cost.

Digital Resources

Digital resources including e-books and online journals are accessible 24/7 through the library portal. Students must use their institute credentials to access these materials.
